Road Safety and Road Crime

Intention - With Partners, enhance Road Safety across the Highland Area.

Objective – With Partners, deliver a Road Safety Strategy focusing on: Challenging driver behaviour; Education at the road side and elsewhere; Detection of offences linked to contributing factors of Fatal and Serious Road Traffic Collisions and collectively reducing potential harm.

There have been several days of action in Easter Ross resulting in numerous warnings and reports for various Road traffic offences.

Visitor Management continues with education days across the Highland area.

Fatal 5 (speeding, seatbelts, mobile phones, drink/drug driving and careless driving) days of action have also been carried out across Highland, including Ward 6.

The National Motorcycle Safety Campaign is still on-going along-side the Fatal 5 campaign and a Rider Refinement North course was run in Dingwall on 13/04/2025.

As in the previous month, a number of moving road traffic offences have been recorded including instances of dangerous or careless driving, driving under the influence of drink / drugs, speeding and a number of vehicle defects. Penalty notices have been given, where appropriate, with others being reported directly to the Procurator Fiscal.

In this reporting period, for reasons unknown, an increase in offences relating to vehicles with no MOT, no insurance and drivers driving whilst disqualified, as well as a higher number of drivers driving under the influence of drugs have been recorded in Invergordon.

OFFICIAL

Anti-Social Behaviour, Disorder and Violence

Intention – With Partners, better understand the causes to prevent and reduce instances of Anti-Social Behaviour, Disorder and Violence to enhance community safety across the Highland Area.

Objective – Work with Partners to share information, support Education, Prevention, Diversionary and Enforcement Measures linked to harmful alcohol consumption; maintain robust procedures around licensed premises; support victims of violent crime by working with partners to improve service provision and prevent repeat victimisation.

Alcohol related violence, domestic violence and violence towards the Police are the biggest issues in this section for April. Police Scotland is committed to effectively dealing with perpetrators of violence and will not tolerate violence of any kind towards its officers. Perpetrators of such incidents will always be dealt with robustly and reported to the courts where there is sufficient evidence.

Police Scotland continues to work with partners regarding any reported anti-social behaviour in the community and will respond to any reported incidents as required. As part of our approach to reduce violence we will continue to complete pro-active patrols and routine licensed premises checks.

There have been a number of reports of assault and threatening and abusive behaviour in the reporting period, with an increase in assaults on Police. Officers continue to deal robustly with perpetrators to maintain public order.

Incidents of note are an assault to injury on 6th April in Invergordon and a disturbance on 26th April in Alness, with perpetrator charged with a number of offences.

Vandalism was reported to have taken place between 4th and 23rd April whereby prohibited notices have been vandalised or removed at former reservoir site in Dalnavie area. Enquiries are ongoing.

Local officers are aware of the issue of anti-social behaviour in the ward and will be conducting extra patrols when available.

Acquisitive Crime

Intention – With Partners and Communities, prevent instances of acquisitive crime across the Highland area.

Objective – With Partners, share information, support education, prevention, diversionary and enforcement activity linked to acquisitive crime; develop work with targets – recidivist offenders to reduce reoffending linked to acquisitive crime e.g. Persistent Offenders programme; enhance the use of all media platforms to raise awareness of local and national preventative initiatives.

A range of crimes reported under this section in April include thefts, shopliftings, frauds and taking motor vehicles without consent of the owner. Of note are a theft of fuel from Kens Garage on 18th April and a bogus tradesman type fraud on 13th April in Evanton.

Police Scotland will continue to work with shops and supermarket security teams to assist in increasing their security measures and preventing instances of shoplifting.

Protecting Vulnerable People

Intention – Protect people at risk of harm.

Objective – With Partners and as corporate parents we will deliver the Highland CHAMPS (Highland Champion Board) strategy; with Partners we will focus on safeguarding communities; with Partners we will address emerging issues through Prevention and Intervention.

There is nothing specific to report for April under this section however, protecting vulnerable people remains a priority for local officers. Calls regarding concern for person and mental health related incidents are attended frequently. These calls can have quite an impact on local resources however there is currently a review ongoing at executive level to ensure Police Scotland are providing the most appropriate response to these types of incidents. Further information can be found here Thematic review of policing mental health in Scotland | HM Inspectorate of Constabulary in Scotland and Multi-Agency Partnership Approach to Distress: Framework for Collaboration

Serious and Organised Crime

Intention – With Partners, reduce the threat, risk and harm caused by Serious Organised Crime.

Objective – With Partners work to safeguard the Highland area by taking all opportunities to prevent crime and make the Highland area a hostile environment for Serious & Organised Crime Groups; to improve outcomes for individuals and communities and reduce offending through prevention, early intervention and diversion; in support of our Partners in the Local Authority and NHS via the Highland Alcohol and Drug Partnership Strategy we will direct those who are substance dependant towards recovery through prevention, treatment and support services; with Partners work to reduce the instances of substance misuse in our communities.

A small number of people were charged with possession of controlled substances in Milton, Invergordon and Alness.

Officers continue to record and act upon all intelligence submitted to Police Scotland in regards to serious and organised crime and encourage public to report suspicious activity via contact us form on the website or via 101.

Counter Terrorism

Intention – Support the delivery of the CONTEST strategy to reduce the threat posed by terrorism and domestic extremism.

Objective – Strengthen PREVENT work with Partners and institutions; with Partners, support individuals who are vulnerable to terrorism and violent extremism; strengthen PREVENT work in relation to the internet and Social Media; Effective Multi-agency planning in respect of Counter Terrorism is taking place; Develop our ability to respond effectively to any terrorist attack (with a specific focus on emerging high-risk threats, and specialist capabilities).

ACT Early is a program delivered to schools across the Highland area. The ACT Early session is a vehicle for debate around the sensitive issue of violent extremism within communities. As such it is an enabler for community participants to air grievances, debate matters of interest to them and work through a group problem solving experience. The following links can provide more information regarding the program: <https://act.campaign.gov.uk/> <https://actearly.uk/>

Whilst Counter Terrorism is obviously a priority for Police Scotland, in the monthly report it is anticipated that there will be nothing to report on a monthly basis and the information will generally remain as above.
